Happy
New Year

Happy New Year! An exciting year is ahead at The Dufrocq School. Teaching and learning is off to a great start, our staff started the school year engaged in professional development. Our hard working staff participated in IXL Science and Social Studies PD. This online platform is being implemented as a supplement to our tier one curriculum. Be on the look out for IXL home-school connection letters to use this resource at home. Staff also participated in district professional development geared towards core content areas. We are also bubbling with excitement about our planned events for the second semester. Stay tuned for the great things ahead at The Dufrocq School!
