Broadmoor High to Host 52nd Annual Arts & Crafts Festival on Nov. 22

BATON ROUGE, La. — Broadmoor High School will host the 52nd annual Broadmoor High School Arts & Crafts Festival from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 22, at the school, 10100 Goodwood Blvd.

The beloved community festival is packed with fun, shopping and family-friendly activities. Attendees can enjoy snow play for the kids, face painting, photos with Santa, a petting zoo, live music, school band performances and more than 100 vendors offering handmade crafts, boutique clothing, local art, seasonal décor, candles and gift baskets and great food.

Food trucks will also be offering hot meal options, and Broadmoor students will sell hot dogs and hamburgers to raise funds for school programs. Admission and parking are $3 each.
