Delmont Pre-K Center to Celebrate International Dot Day with Fashion Show

BATON ROUGE, La. — Delmont Pre-K Center will celebrate International Dot Day on Tuesday, Sept. 15, with a fashion show showcasing the creativity and self-expression of its 4-year-old students.

The fashion show will begin at 12:30 p.m. at the school, 5300 Douglas St.

International Dot Day is a celebration of creativity, courage and self-expression inspired by Peter H. Reynolds' children's book, "The Dot." The story encourages children to make their mark and discover the creative possibilities that can begin with something as simple as a dot.

"International Dot Day encourages our students to explore their creativity, try something new and recognize that even a simple dot can be the beginning of something amazing," said Delmont Principal Ariane St. Julien.

The fashion show will be part of a day filled with classroom activities and fun-filled events centered on the theme. Teachers who showcase the best-dressed attire will also have an opportunity to join their students on the runway.
