EBR Schools to host Continuing Educational Opportunities Fair

BATON ROUGE, La. — The East Baton Rouge Parish School System's Office of Human Resources is inviting educators and aspiring education professionals to explore opportunities for career advancement, certification and continued learning at its Fall 2026 Continuing Educational Opportunities Fair.

The event is scheduled from 4 p.m to 6 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 29, at the Office of Human Resources, 1022 S. Foster Drive.

Attendees will have the opportunity to connect with representatives from universities, educator preparation programs and educational organizations to explore opportunities to learn, grow and advance.

Participating institutions and organizations include:

- Teach EBR Educator Preparation Program
- Walden University
- LSU
- Nicholls State University
- Southern University
- Upper Iowa University
- University of Louisiana at Monroe Online
- Southeastern Louisiana University
- Baton Rouge Community College
- Grand Canyon University
- iteach Louisiana
- Louisiana Resource Center for Educators

Each participating institution or organization will have a table and a representative available to share information and educational resources.

COMMUNICATIONS & PUBLIC RELATIONS

Opportunities include undergraduate and graduate degrees, teacher certification and educator preparation programs, professional development, specialized certifications, scholarships and tuition assistance.

The Office of Human Resources will also provide information on educational resources, employee support, Praxis reimbursement and resources for substitute teachers and paraprofessionals.

Whether attendees are considering a new degree, pursuing teacher certification, seeking an advanced credential or exploring professional development, the fair offers an opportunity to ask questions, connect with educational partners and identify the next step in their educational journey.
